

Hélder Ferreira

Hélder Ferreira (MD, PhD, MBA) is the Head of the Minimally Invasive Gynaecologic Surgery Unit of Centro Hospitalar Universitário in Porto, Portugal. He is also a Professor of Gynaecology at the University of Porto in ICBAS (Instituto de Ciências Biomédicas Abel Salazar). Pr. Ferreira is the Chairman of YEP-ESGE and Member of the Executive Board of European Society for Gynaecological Endoscopy (ESGE). He is President of the Portuguese Society of Minimally Invasive. Surgery. He is the holder of a fellowship in Minimally Invasive Surgery, a Medical Education diploma. He is the author of several original articles, book chapters, short communications and Websurg™ video publications. He lectures in national, regional and international scientific meetings/congresses and, performed live demonstrative surgeries in several countries. He has been invited lecturer in several organizations like IRCAD (Research Institute against Digestive Cancer), University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg (South Africa), MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology - MIT) and Institute of Anatomy at the University of Tuebingen. He is one of the Head instructors of the European Academy of Gynaecological Surgery (Leuven, Belgium). He has tutored many training courses on dry/live-tissue lab and cadaver dissection.