

Tamar Khomasuridze

UNFPA SRH Advisor for Eastern Europe and Central Asia; UNFPA Regional Office in Istanbul.

Tamar has more than 30 years of experience in the field of SRH as a clinician, researcher and programme adviser and manager. She is medical Doctor, (Ob/Gyn), holds PhD; Tamar joined UNFPA in 1999 and worked on technical and managerial positions at UNFPA Georgia office. Since 2013 Tamar is the UNFPA regional SRH Advisor and covers Eastern Europe, Central Asia and South Caucasus Countries. Tamar is member of interagency groups, international thematic coalitions and scientific committees focused on health/SRH.