

Nataliia Pedachenko had graduated from National Medical University with excellent marks in 2004.

In 2008 she had defended her PhD thesis "Scientific substantiation of methods of pre-conceptional training in women with thyroid gland pathologies"

In 2013 Nataliia had defended Doctoral thesis (DSc) "Reproductive health of women with metabolic syndrome"

She is a member of a working group the Ministry of Health of Ukraine on the establishment of a Unified clinical protocols "Endometriosis", "Abnormal uterine bleeding" and 2021 approved "Endometrial hyperplasia" National guideline.

Current place of work:

Professor of the department of obstetrics, gynecology and perinatology P.L. Shupyk National Healthcare University of Ukraine

A gynecologist and a scientific curator of the gynecological department of Kyiv City Maternity Hospital No 1,

Executive Secretary of Ukrainian Society of Gynecologists Endocrinologists.

Nataliia is married with three children.